PROFILE

I am a hairdresser and makeup artist, I have been in the hair industry for 18 years where I also learnt makeup for fashion on the job. I have experience with teaching within the salon environment and have a passion for period styling. I have continued to develop my skills within hair and makeup over this time with numerous short courses. I started my hairdressing career with a background in fashion in Sydney. I have worked for myself and done freelance work for the last 3 years with a focus on cutting and styling as well as wigs for performance artist. I am driven by the development of my craft.
