

Notes

Jordi Webber is a young Maori actor who is swiftly gaining international recognition as a leading man. Currently, he is shooting a series regular role in the Stan Originals/Lionsgate megachurch drama PROSPER.

Born in Rotorua, New Zealand, Jordi's first screen role was playing 'Levi Weston', the Gold Ranger, on POWER RANGERS NINJA STEEL. Shortly after he landed the role of 'Rangi' in epic Maori action/thriller series THE DEAD LANDS for AMC Shudder.

Since then, Jordi has had a consistent stream of local and international work, with highlights including romantics leads in feature films MISTLETOE RANCH and Netflix original CHOOSE LOVE, and a key supporting role in independent US feature NOMAD, set for release in 2024.

Most recently, Jordi joined the cast of iconic Australian drama HOME AND AWAY as free-spirited troublemaker 'Kahu Parata', prior to being cast in PROSPER.

Alongside acting, Jordi has been a musician for over a decade, writing and playing music for his alter-ego 'Waazzoo and The Vibes'. He also has extensive stunt training, and when not in the studio you'll find Jordi surfing and hiking, anywhere you might find an intrepid traveller.
